Dear Dr. Kovnatsky,

In your above-mentioned application for access to information under the German Freedom of Information Act (IFG), you requested the following:

“Pursuant to Section 1(1) IFG, I request access to all internal analyses, assessments, memoranda, and correspondence not classified as confidential concerning:

- my original request;
- the related ticket;
- the human rights concerns presented therein;
- the handling of the submitted evidence.

Should any documents be classified, I request the specific legal basis for each classification (§3 IFG in conjunction with §9 IFG). Any refusal must be formally justified.”

The following decision is hereby issued:

No official information pursuant to Section 2 No.1 IFG exists at the Federal Foreign Office regarding your request.

Therefore, there is no entitlement to access information under Section 1(1), sentence 1 IFG.

In addition, regarding points 3 and 4 of your request, the following is communicated:

The Federal Government is engaged in regular exchanges with the Ukrainian government. Human rights issues are also discussed within this framework.

This decision is issued free of charge.
