Dear arXiv user,

We have received your inquiry about your submission. Thank you for submitting your work. We see that your submission is currently on hold pending a decision by our volunteer moderators.

We have reminded our moderators that a decision is needed regarding your submission.

No action is required on your end at this time. We apologize, but due to the large daily volume of submissions, we are unable to provide more feedback on any one work. You may wish to submit your manuscripts to traditional peer-reviewed journals or reach out to your network for relevant commentary.

When moderation is complete, your submission will be posted on arXiv, or we will contact you with further information. More information about arXiv moderation is available at:
