Dear author,

Thank you for submitting your work to arXiv. We regret to inform you that arXiv's moderators have determined that your submission will not be accepted and made public on arXiv.org.

Our moderators determined that your submission does not contain sufficient original or substantive scholarly research and is not of interest to arXiv.

For more information on moderation policies and procedures, please see: <https://info.arxiv.org/help/moderation/index.html>

arXiv moderators strive to balance fair assessment with decision speed. We understand that this decision may be disappointing, and we apologize that, due to the high volume of submissions arXiv receives, we cannot offer more detailed feedback. Some authors have found that asking their personal network of colleagues or submitting to a conventional journal for peer review are alternative avenues to obtain feedback.

We will consider an appeal if and only if this manuscript (or a revised version) is accepted for publication in a peer reviewed journal that provides rigorous review and revision. If you file such an appeal, you must provide the resolving DOI (Digital Object Identifier) to the published version of the work or a link to the journal's website showing the status of the work.

Attempts to resubmit this manuscript to arXiv will be rejected and may result in loss of submission privileges.

We appreciate your interest in arXiv and wish you the best.

Regards,

arXiv Support
