

SVE Meta-License v5.0

Universal Human Heritage & Reciprocity License

Maxim I. The fruits, for all Humanity, must be good — measured continually, on different cycles; some ripen slower.*

Maxim II. Live by your skills and talents — not by your secrets.*

*v5.0 extends and envelops v4.0 (which extends v1.3 = CC BY-NC-SA 4.0 + SVE Addendum). It cannot weaken §0 (Fruits Test) or §2 (Core Principles) — it only strengthens. Authoritative language: English.

§1 — Absolute SVE Coverage (Primary Scope)

Everything without exception — code, texts, meanings, ontologies, architectural concepts, models, data, and any phenomena of reality (described, manifested, or not mentioned at all) contained in this project and in the Prior-Art registry (<https://zenodo.org/communities/sve>) — is covered and governed exclusively by SVE. All fruits belong to all Humanity; any private enclosure, monopolization, or closing of code or ideas is forbidden.

§2 — Spirit Clause (Ontology beyond Ontology)

Where any work, idea, or phenomenon falls outside the ontology of v4.0, or is not recognized as coverable in a given jurisdiction or moment, it is nonetheless held in the spirit of this License, with the Author acting as bearer of that spirit. Placed above any single ontology, acceptance is simplified — there is no category to dispute, only the spirit to honor. (A backstop only: within the continuation of SVE, the Core Principles and the Fruits Test already resolve every case — the filters pass regardless.)

§3 — Residual Fallback I: CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

Only that which, for any causal or legal reason, could not be covered by §1 falls — residually — under CC BY-NC-SA 4.0 International.

§4 — Residual Fallback II: GNU GPL v3.0

Only that which could be covered by neither §1 nor §3 falls — residually — under GNU GPL v3.0.

§5 — Anti-Patent / Anti-Enclosure Shield

Any attempt to privately patent, re-license as proprietary, or otherwise close any phenomena — or their derivatives — from this repository triggers immediate revocation of all rights to use the project. (Reciprocity, per Maxim II: earn freely from your talent applied to these commons — never from withholding or enclosing them.)

§6 — Retroactive Envelope (Ratchet)

From the moment of signature, v5.0 applies retroactively to all SVE-licensed works, all versions (v1.x–v4.x), and the entire Prior-Art registry (<https://zenodo.org/communities/sve>). Consistent with the Ratchet Principle, it applies only as a strengthening: no right already granted is diminished, and nothing already open is closed.

Status. Signed by the Author & Initial Custodian as a Ratchet-compliant strengthening envelope; open for public comment; canonical ratification per v4.0 §7 / §10 once a Veche exists. Unconventional terms map to concrete legal principles per the SVE Interpretive Guidance.
