Dear colleagues,
Dear Professor Michael M. Bronstein,
(I refer to you here merely as a symbolic representative of the current Academic System),

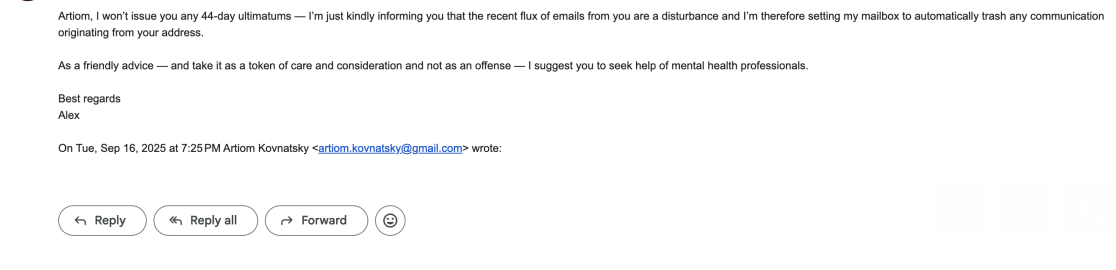

Forty-four days have passed since my public confession and call for systemic academic reform.
As a reminder, here are the original letters:
1. 16.09_A Public Confession of Academic Fraud & A Demand for Systemic Reform - artiom.kovnatsky@gmail.com - Gmail.pdf
2. 17.09_The Solution_A Protocol for Reform in Science and Society - artiom.kovnatsky@gmail.com - Gmail.pdf

Related attached files:
Initial_Idea_SYSTEM-PURGATORY.pdf

In those forty-four days, no meaningful action was taken. I was accused of "lying" by Prof. Alexander M. Bronstein, was suggested to "seek mental help", and was blocked. Ignoring my call for providing proof (code + data) until this day.

After I sent the letter beforehand about my proposal for the reform, where I proposed Prof. Michael M. Bronstein as the lead of the committee:

The System chose silence (response to usi.ch to my letter confessing publicly to academic fraud) — I chose proof.

On October 29, 2025, I officially withdrew the CVPR 2015 paper "Functional Correspondence by Matrix Completion" from arXiv (<https://arxiv.org/abs/1412.8070>), stating that its results were fabricated and not reproducible.

This is the first verified act of self-correction — an action, not rhetoric.
